Dear [Redacted]

The Assistant Director for whom a highly sensitive investigation was recently conducted under your supervision in an overseas area states that the information obtained was of great operational value.

The excellent and discreet handling of this investigation under the most difficult conditions reflects great credit on yourself and the activity to which you are assigned. It is a pleasure to commend you for the results obtained.

A copy of this letter will be placed in your official personnel file.

Sincerely,

WALTER B. SMITH
Director
